Subject: draft email notice to interested parties (to be sent tomorrow)

I mentioned during one of our daily calls last week that I'd like to send a short email to our Interested Parties list from our 404Assumption@epa.gov mailbox on the day the FR is posted (i.e., tomorrow). Part of my intention is to reach some of the people on our Interested Parties mailing list that may not have received the previous email because it included an attachment. Also, now that the publication date and hearing dates are certain, I think sending a short email update would be helpful. Below is a draft email that mirrors the summary language provided to everyone yesterday (to be posted on our website), with an added sentence at the end. If anyone has any comments please respond to all. Thanks, Tom
